PROFILE

A current pursuit of a Master's in Applied Computer Science at Grand Valley State University underscores my dedication to continuous learning. Boasting over 5 years of experience, my specialization lies in Data Integration, with a keen focus on ETL tools like Abinitio, Unix Scripting, and Oracle SQL. My international exposure in Dusseldorf, Germany, has honed my skills in gathering business requirements, crafting specifications, conducting rigorous testing, and developing training materials. Proficiency in scheduling tools, including Redwood and Control Center, has enriched my professional portfolio. My successful track record extends to implementing, migrating, and providing support for Abinitio projects. Leveraging my strong communication skills in English and Hindi, I excel in effective collaboration.
